Equipment Return Policy

- Customers or Sales Distributors who wish to return equipment must request a Return Authorization within 30 days of receipt of their shipment.
- The Equipment Return Authorization Form must be signed by a member of management before the equipment is returned.
- Equipment must be received in resalable condition, or no credit will be given.
- There will be a 20% restocking charge for equipment in resalable condition.
- The customer is responsible for the return freight to our warehouse in Somerset, Kentucky.
- Customers or Sales Distributors have two weeks from receipt of the Equipment Return Authorization Form to schedule the return shipment. If shipping information has not been provided to Play Mart within that time period, another Equipment Return Authorization Form must be requested.
